

Elijah Savage

Associate

Chicago

312.214.7900 | esavage@dicellolevitt.com

Ten North Dearborn Street
Sixth Floor
Chicago, Illinois 60602

Overview

Elijah Savage is an associate attorney in DiCello Levitt's Chicago office whose practice focuses on class action, employee benefit, and public client litigation. A steadfast advocate for the public interest, Elijah strives to uphold the highest standards of justice and transparency, working to achieve impactful and fair outcomes for those he represents.

Elijah earned his law degree from Lewis & Clark Law School, where he was an associate editor of Environmental Law, was selected as one of two 2023 Wyss Scholars, and served as a judicial extern to a federal judge in the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon. He also worked as a law clerk for Professor Robert Klonoff, where he gained practical experience in aggregate and complex litigation.

Practice Areas

PRIVACY, TECHNOLOGY, AND CYBERSECURITY

CLASS ACTION LITIGATION

Education

Lewis & Clark Law School, J.D., summa cum laude University of California, Santa Barbara, B.A., with honors

Awards & Honors

Cornelius Honor Society, Lewis & Clark Law School (2024)

Wyss Scholar for the Conservation of the American West, Lewis & Clark Law School (2023)

Bernard F. O'Rourke Award, for outstanding written scholarship in the environmental/natural resources field, Lewis & Clark Law School (2024)

Publications & Presentations

"The Public Trust Doctrine and Groundwater: Protecting Groundwater Reserves for Future Generations," 55 Env't L. 209 (2025)

Contributor, "Arguing Class Actions: The Misaligned Incentives of the Lodestar Cross-Check," The National Law Journal, July 2025

Contributor, "Arguing Class Actions: Reevaluating the Rule Against One-Way Intervention," National Law Journal, October 2024

Admissions & Memberships

Bar Admissions

California

Illinois

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois

U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan