Overview

Elton Darby is a senior counsel at DiCello Levitt's Birmingham, Alabama office. He believes authenticity, empathy, and understanding are critical to building trust and effectively advocating for his clients. With focus on mass tort, personal injury, and civil and human rights litigation, Elton puts his passion and experience to work for individuals who have suffered injury and injustice at the hands of others.

Prior to joining DiCello Levitt, Elton represented individuals, small companies, small financial institutions, and large corporations in business-related disputes, including general liability, workers' compensation, premises liability, and bankruptcy. He chose his current direction in representing individual clients because he wants to make a difference in the lives of the most vulnerable, rather than defending those with the most power.

Elton received his J.D. from the University of Alabama School of Law. During law school, he worked in the Civil Law Clinic helping students and local residents in West Alabama address legal issues that local law firms would not pursue. He also served as senior editor of the Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Law Review.
