Overview

DiCello Levitt Partner Jonathan Crevier prosecutes complex antitrust class actions on behalf of businesses and consumers. He actively litigates cases against a number of the world's largest companies in antitrust matters involving price-fixing, monopolization, illegal information exchanges, exclusive dealing, tying, and other anticompetitive practices. Jonathan is heavily involved in one of the largest, most complex antitrust cases of all time, In re Generic Pharmaceuticals Pricing Antitrust Litigation (E.D. Pa.). He was also a member of DiCello Levitt's trial team in In re Opana ER Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ill.).

As part of the firm's nationally recognized Antitrust and Competition Litigation Practice Group, Jonathan leads DiCello Levitt's antitrust investigation unit. In this capacity, Jonathan has investigated and filed several cutting-edge antitrust cases, including In re Manufactured Home Lot Rents Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ill.) and Unger v. The Walt Disney Company (N.D. Cal.).

Prior to joining the firm, Jonathan was an associate in a nationally-recognized competition and antitrust litigation group, where he represented plaintiffs in complex antitrust matters. He also previously served as a Judicial Intern for the Honorable Henry Pitman, U.S.M.J., in the District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Jonathan and his wife Christine live in Denver, Colorado where they are active in their local community and school district. Outside of work, Jonathan enjoys spending time outdoors.
