Overview

Nicholas “Niko” Horattas represents individuals as part of DiCello Levitt’s Single Event, Mass Tort, and Class Action practice groups. He advocates for clients who have suffered injuries or harm caused by the wrongful conduct of others, including negligent individuals and corporations as well as unfair and deceptive business practices. He believes strongly that holding businesses accountable and is committed to helping his clients recover damages for injuries suffered at the hands of large corporations that have prioritized profits over their customers’ and surrounding communities’ well-being. Whether he is representing a single client or hundreds of clients in a mass or class action, Niko ensures that each client feels personally represented.

After earning a bachelor’s degree in Corporate Finance and Business Administration at the University of Akron, Niko received his law degree from Case Western Reserve University School of Law where he was recognized as a Law and Leadership Scholar. During law school, he held a judicial clerkship and later served as certified legal intern at the Milton A. Kramer Law Clinic at Case Western Reserve. Prior to becoming an Associate at DiCello Levitt, Niko worked at the firm as a law clerk. He also previously served as a legal clerk for a medical malpractice law firm where he worked on cases involving the professional negligence of healthcare providers.
