Overview

DiCello Levitt Partner Roxana Pierce is the co-founder of the firm's Securities Practice Group and an international attorney who brings a unique level of diversity and experience to her litigation practice, protecting investor rights and the rights of victims of consumer fraud, waste, and abuse.

Representing governmental and private pension funds, large institutional investors, attorneys general, international banks, asset managers, foreign governments, multi-national corporations, sovereign wealth funds and individuals, Roxana has served clients from more than 20 states and 82 countries, with extensive experience in the Middle East, Europe, and Asia. Zealous and passionate, Roxana advocates for her clients through litigation, arbitration, mediation, and in negotiations.

Roxana represents clients in consumer protection, securities, products liability, contracts, and other claims in private, group, and class actions. Prior to joining DiCello Levitt, Roxana became a seasoned attorney through her experience working on cases against the world's largest pharmaceutical and automobile manufacturers as well as litigation concerning the 2008 global financial crisis. In addition, Roxana's background includes contract negotiations for hundreds of projects, including several valued at more than $1 billion, with governmental and corporate leaders both foreign and domestic.

When recognizing DiCello Levitt as a Recommended Firm in the Securities Litigation: Plaintiff category, The Legal 500 highlighted the Securities Practice Group for its "outstanding technical skills and the capacity to listen to clients and take their concerns on board." The publication also commended Roxana for her "outstanding skills in proactive communication." In addition, Roxana was named a Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyer by Lawdragon in 2024.

Deeply committed to serving her community, Roxana serves as Director and Board member of The Invisible Hand Foundation, Inc., which provides funding to Washington, D.C. and Maryland-area residents facing hardships. For her work with that organization, Roxana was honored by the National Center for Children and Families with the Humanitarian Spirit Award for Advocacy.

Roxana studied French at the Sorbonne University in France before earning her bachelor's degree in international affairs and international relations from Pepperdine University. She is fluent in Farsi and proficient in French and Turkish. Roxana began her legal career as a Paralegal with focus on corporate law, receiving her certificate from the University of San Diego. She earned her Juris Doctor from Thomas Jefferson School of Law, where she focused on international law.
