

In re Manufactured Home Lot Rents Antitrust Litigation

The owners of the manufactured home communities named as defendants are Equity Lifestyle Properties, Hometown America Management, Lakeshore Communities, Sun Communities, RHP Properties, Yes Communities, Inspire Communities, Kingsley Management, Cal-Am Properties, and Murex Properties. At this time, we are not adding additional defendants or plaintiffs.

Two things are important for you to know at this stage:

First, the statute of limitations for all members of the nationwide class was tolled (paused) from the day we filed our complaint until the Court reaches a final conclusion on whether the class should be certified. So you will not lose the right to claim any damages by not filing a complaint.

Second, to the extent there is a favorable class settlement or verdict in this case, proper notice will be given to all members of the class so that they can file a claim to share in the recovery. Any future settlement will need to be approved by the Court, whose job it is to safeguard the interests of all plaintiffs who did not file complaints (whom we refer to as “absent class members”). One of the purposes of our class action system is to efficiently bring cases for relief on behalf of a large group of people without the need for every affected individual to hire their own lawyers and file their own complaint.

To stay up to date on the case, you may look up the case on PACER, which is a government website that provides electronic public access to federal court records.

Case Name: Hajek v. Datacomp Appraisal Systems, Inc.

Docket Number: 1:23-cv-06715

Court: Northern District of Illinois (N.D. Ill.)

Judge: Honorable Franklin U. Valderrama

You can access PACER via this link: <https://pacer.uscourts.gov/>.