Overview

Andrea Shang is an associate in DiCello Levitt's Chicago office. Her practice focuses on class actions and public clients in state and federal courts across the United States.

Prior to joining DiCello Levitt, Andrea worked at an international firm, where she litigated commercial and employment matters, class actions, and mass torts. Andrea also maintained an active pro bono practice, representing asylum seekers and students with disabilities.

While at Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, Andrea served on the board of the Northwestern Journal of Law and Social Policy and interned for multiple government agencies, including the U.S. Department of Labor and the New York State Office of the Attorney General. She also served as a judicial intern at the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York.
