Overview

Nada Djordjevic brings justice to those who are harmed by consumer fraud, unfair business practices, data privacy breaches, deceptive insurance sales practices, and other egregious acts. With more than two decades of experience representing plaintiffs in class actions and complex commercial litigation matters, Nada zealously protects the interests of aggrieved clients throughout the United States.

Nada's clients benefit from her skilled and varied litigation practice. In addition to consumer protection cases and class actions, she has represented clients in issues related to securities fraud, ERISA violations, deceptive insurance sales practices, and qui tam cases under the False Claims Act.

Nada was recently named to the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee as the Chair of Damages in the multidistrict class action litigation against Samsung Electronics related to multiple data breaches in 2022 involving more than 50 million consumers.

Nada's litigation successes include a $25 million settlement on behalf of 800,000 people in a class action lawsuit. The action involved claims of violations of state consumer protection and deceptive practices laws against a major athletics event organizer. She also represented a multistate plaintiff class in a data breach case that resulted in one of the largest breach-related settlements in healthcare history. Nada was also part of the litigation team that negotiated settlements worth more than $275 million for universal life insurance policyholders in two nationwide class actions alleging improper monthly policy charges.
